

Jake has spent the past few years summer school holidays in Cumbria. When he was 6 years old he decided he'd like to climb all the Wainwright fells, walking in his Great-Grandfather's footsteps. I'm delighted to let you know that Jake, with the support of his Grandad, Martin Wilson, has just completed all 214.

